In making this application, the undersigned agrees to accept the following conditions and requirements to be listed on the Barn Quilt Trail of Todd County.

- I recognize that having a quilt barn square as part of the Barn Quilt Trail may increase traffic and/or visitors to its location.
- If I rent, lease, sell, or otherwise convey my property during the time period or remove the quilt square from its location, I will notify the Alliance to allow them to remove the quilt barn square from the Trail, if necessary.
- I understand that this barn quilt square will remain on the Trail listing as long as it is maintained and in good repair as determined by the Alliance and can be removed from the listing at their discretion.
- The barn quilt square is the property of the owner. I will allow my structure and barn quilt square to be photographed by the public.
- The Alliance will have promotional rights, i.e. postcards, photos, brochures, social media, calendars to any barn quilt square on the Trail.
- I will allow my name or my business’s name to be used for advertising materials i.e. newspaper, websites, publications, social media, brochures, etc.
- The Todd County Community Alliance, as well as its officers, agents, partners and sponsors will not be held liable against any and all claims, liabilities, losses, and causes of action.
- Final approval to place barn quilt squares on the Trail must be approved by the Alliance.
